

I am writing to officially enter my comments regarding Sinclair Broadcasting. Sinclair's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a great example of how Big Media is suffocating responsible journalism.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. One-sided programs like "Stolen Honor" do not serve that interest and are harmful to our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
